

SINGAPORE TATLER HOMES

THE INSIDER'S GUIDE TO LUXURIOUS LIVING

EDITORIAL SYNOPSIS

With the overwhelming support of readers and advertisers coupled by the explosive demand for luxurious properties, Singapore Tatler Homes is now a quarterly publication of Singapore Tatler. It has established itself as the definitive read for elite and discerning individuals. More importantly, it is intimately connected to the country's most prominent personalities in business and society, who can afford the very best in furniture, décor, appliances and accessories.

Each edition promises the latest trends in international furniture design, and the most luxurious and iconic products to fill up the glamorous spaces in these coveted homes in Singapore and the world.

Readers will enjoy the coverage of the latest design news from the Milan Furniture Fair, and how the fashion runways have influenced home décor and interiors. There are also informative articles on practical ways to: design a professional-quality kitchen, build a state-of-the-art home theatre, and to select and purchase art with a professional eye.
